Discussions and Presentations

America 250 Anniversary Events Update

Kenneth Howe reported that he had met with the band director and discussed Historical Society handing out information at the concert. Howe also shared that Governor Kehoe had a conflict and would be unable to attend, and recommended Josh Ashcraft in his absence.

Rebecca Rupard discussed logistics concerns with entities performing before the main concert began and shared that Matt Rogers was concerned as well due to the challenges. Rupard shared that she won't know final information until her meeting with Diamond Rio, which was scheduled for April 9th, and advised that Magda Reagan would be catering the food for the band. She also discussed security and shared that she hadn't put out a call yet to volunteers. The board discussed logistics for the band and concert, such as loading, transportation, stagehands, the opening door time, photographers, press passes, and procedures for handicap accessibility.

Mayor Carr shared that the next meeting would be on Thursday, April 9th at 9:00 a.m. and noted that during the week of the concert, they could host two meetings on the 23rd and 24th.

Commission and Staff Discussion

City Administrator Troy Schulte shared that the banners would be up by the end of the day and that the water tower lighting would be changed to red, white, and blue. He also confirmed a flyover the night of the Downtown Picnic by a possible A-10, as the B-2 would be unavailable.

Adjournment

Mayor Carr declared the meeting adjourned at 9:53 a.m.
